You will first visit Kitaichi Glass and Otaru Music Box Museum where you can enjoy the sound of the orgel and twinkly light of the glass.

At the Kitaichi Glass, the time just flies by as you see colorful glass products such as crystal glass, oil lamp, tea utensil and soy sauce bottle.

The Otaru Music Box Museum has displays and sells a variety of the music boxes which has been collected since it was built during the time of Meiji.

15.00 pm: - Visiting Sapporo Beer Factory

The Genghis Khan Hall in its old glory is a red brick building with ivy climbing up the sides. Built in the year 23 of the Meiji era, it served as a government office building when the government was sending pioneers to Hokkaido. This profound historical building has an atmosphere that will give you an unique feeling every time you set foot inside.

As you enter the building, firewood lines the walls where a large and glowing fireplace stands and the aroma of the beer hall welcomes its guests.

16.00 pm: - Riding cable car and sight seeing from Mt. Tengu

Otaru is the hilly city which tells tales of now and past. As it has almost none of flatland except the port area, you will see many slopes while walking. This tour takes you upslope to the top of Mt. Tengu by rope way, you can enjoy one of the three major nightscapes of Hokkaido. The panoramic view and the romantic streetscape of historical buildings lit brightly are just incredible. And, you can enjoy the contrasts of indigo-blue water and the brightness lit by the ships and shops along the shore. This tour is convenient for tourists from Otaru because it includes transfers from Otaru as well as Sapporo.
